

Position Title: Psychologist
Location: Point Cook
Employment Type: Subcontractor
Reports to: Principal Psychologist at Life Resolutions Point Cook

Life Resolutions is a dynamic and fast growing network of private practices, with a number of convenient locations around Australia, all with an interesting and diverse client base. We pride ourselves on creating a warm, supportive and professional environment both for clients and staff.

We are looking for a fully registered psychologist to work in our Point Cook private practice across a wide client group (individuals, couples, children and organisations). We also have opportunities to facilitate groups. The position is available for part-time 10-15 hours per week. Given our client group it is essential to be able to offer some after hours appointment times.

The successful candidate will be rewarded with attractive remuneration as well as various exciting opportunities for career movement within the organisation. The growing number of private practices in the Life Resolutions network allows the opportunity to work with other psychologists and not in isolation. We provide strong induction, supervision and have excellent practice managers to provide overall support to our staff.

Key Responsibilities and Duties

Duties and responsibilities of the psychologist include, but are not limited to:

Service

- Counselling clients for the agreed hours per week in a private practice setting.
- Preparing for client sessions and researching psychological disorders/conditions as needed.
- Engaging clients to commit to counselling.
- Nurturing relationships with local referral agencies including liaising with GPs.
- Performing administrative tasks commensurate with position responsibilities including client preparation and notes, letters to referrers, report writing, taking payments etc.

Professional Development

- Professional development involves a continual update of current psychological therapies, procedures, conditions from attending seminars, courses and programs.
- Participation in group, peer and/or individual supervision.

Hours

The position is 10-15 hours . Due to our client needs it is essential to be able to offer some after hours sessions up to 9pm on evenings and 6pm on Saturdays.
